The Debra Driscoll Amendment to the Arizona Constitution: All requests for compensation in conservatorship/guardianship matters will require a written acceptance by a spouse (1st priority), a parent (2nd), an immediate family member, or the Arizona Attorney General if no family member can be located. All conservatorship/guardianship cases guarantee the right to trial by jury. Probate abuse, including asset misappropriation, are exempt from statutes of limitations. Probate abusers and those directly associated must pay treble (threefold) damages to the victims. This ensures probate dispute, fairness, timely justice for abuse victims, and stringent penalties for wrongdoers.
