This Constitutional Amendment mandates a statewide salary schedule for Arizona's K-12 public educators. It sets the initial salary for first-year teachers at $65,124.40, not including fringe benefits. Subsequent years will see a 5% yearly salary increase for up to 20 years, incentivizing experience and loyalty. Current teachers earning more will maintain their advanced salary steps. Additionally, it guarantees all teachers pension eligibility, providing financial security post-retirement. This measure aims to fairly compensate educators, crucial for Arizona's educational excellence.
